

West End Stories Walking Tour

By the Scottish Tourist Guides Association (STGA)

The Edinburgh & S E Scotland branch of the STGA, creators of the highly acclaimed “Edinburgh's Georgian Shadows” walking tours, has collaborated with Edinburgh World Heritage in devising this fascinating tour of the elegant, quieter, less well-known streets of the historic New Town.

Hear about the amazing lives of people from Edinburgh’s rich past, some of whom even changed the way we live today, including Queen Victoria’s surgeon, Joseph Bell, the real life inspiration for Arthur Conan Doyle’s Sherlock Holmes; antiseptic surgery pioneer Joseph Lister; innovative 19th century doctor and suffragist Elsie Inglis; Scottish Colourist painter Francis Cadell; women’s higher education campaigner Christian Wright Guthrie; children’s literature writer Catherine Sinclair and many more.

When: from 19th August to 13th September 2020. Afternoon and evening tours, lasting approximately 1 ½ hours, are available on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Morning and afternoon tours are available on Saturdays and Sundays.

Where: Meet your guide by West Register House, 17 Charlotte Square, Edinburgh, EH2 4DJ

Children: Children 8 years and older are welcome.

Group Size: Maximum group size will be 8. Tours will not run with less than 2 people, in which case you will be notified and offered a refund or re-booked on another tour.

Price: £12.45 (including booking fee and £1.00 donation to Edinburgh World Heritage to help support its vital conservation and community work).

Book tickets online at Eventbrite – NB we will not be able to handle any cash transactions.

For full details including our Covid-19 Policy, Disability and Access information and Weather cancellation policy, and to book tickets please go to:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/west-end-stories-walking-tour-tickets-115976676361?aff=erelexpmlt>

